Seminar Report - Environmental Vision in Vedas

Title: Two-Day National Seminar on “Environmental Vision in Vedas”

Organized by: Department of Vedanta, Government Sanskrit College, Tripunithura

Dates: 19 & 20 July 2019

Financial Assistance: UGC – SWRO, Bangalore

The Department of Vedanta, Government Sanskrit College, Tripunithura, organized a Two-Day National Seminar on “Environmental Vision in Vedas” with the financial support of UGC–SWRO, Bangalore. The seminar aimed to explore the ecological perspectives embedded in the Vedic texts and their relevance to contemporary environmental concerns.

The seminar was inaugurated by Dr. C. Rajendran, eminent Sanskrit scholar and Professor (Retd.), Calicut University, who also delivered the Keynote Address. Dr. K. C. Suseela, Principal, presided over the session, and Dr. Ajikumar P. V., Coordinator, delivered the Welcome Address. Felicitations were offered by Sri. Sabarigireesan, Municipal Councillor, Tripunithura, and Smt. K. D. Sobha, Principal on FIP deputation. Dr. K. S. Latha, Assistant Professor, proposed the Vote of Thanks.

On the second day, Dr. K. B. Subbarayudu, Principal, RSKS, Devaprayag Campus, Uttarakhand, presented the thematic paper. Technical sessions featured presentations by eminent scholars including Dr. M. V. Natesan, Dr. Rajeshkumar P., Dr. Vasanthakumari V., Dr. Sheeba, Dr. L. Sudharmini, and several other academicians from universities and colleges across Kerala.

The seminar focused on key areas such as Vedic ecology, environmental ethics, and the spiritual dimensions of nature preservation. It provided a scholarly platform for dialogue between Sanskritists and environmentalists, reaffirming the continuing relevance of Vedic insights in promoting ecological awareness and sustainable living.
